Dedication

We would like to thank and dedicate this yearbook to one of Saint John's best and most appreciated teachers, Carl Wilson. Carl retired at the end of 2015, his 47th year at Saint John's High School. He is extremely special to all who worked closely with him--whether that be because they were his student, they were his colleague, or sometimes even both! Carl brought immense passion, unimaginable knowledge, and endless kindness to each and every task he encountered. His classes were engaging and thought-provoking. Although teaching was his daily job (and he did it effortlessly), his day did not end there. Carl also ran multiple time consuming extra curricular activities during his 47 years including, but not excluded to: History club, Model United Nations, and Mock Trial.

Carl Wilson held the five Xavierian charisms close to his heart and demonstrated them well on a daily basis. We want to sincerely thank you for all that you have done, do, and will do for us in the future. Your presence will always linger in the halls, and the life lessons you have taught us will push us further in our lives.

Founders Hall Beam Signing

Founders Hall is the newest addition to St. John's Campus as it replaced the old Flavian Hall! During the 2014-2015 school year, both teachers and students alike were able to witness the demolition of Flavian Hall followed by the construction of Founders Hall. In an effort to further involve the campus in the building of the new hall, we were all invited to sign the top beam before it was placed on Founders Hall. We have all left our mark on the new building.

Baseball

The Pioneers baseball team had a fantastic season, posting a 16-8 record against arguably the toughest team schedule in the state. The season was highlighted by two-game sweeps over Algonquin, New Bedford, and BC High, while the team also defeated Saint John's Prep, Springfield Cathedral, and St. Peter Marian. The 8-0 victory over St. Peter Marian in the final week of the season earned the team its sixth consecutive CMass conference championship and cemented the team's ultimate selection in the Super 8 tournament.

The team's success was due to extraordinary senior leadership, dogged determination, and the emergence of several underclassmen. Senior captains Danny Barlok, Tyler McKeon, and Kevin Quinlivan worked with classmates Alex Black, Shane Combs, Matt Dowling, Anthony Froio, Jared Freilich, and Charlie McDonald to build a team that motivated, supported, and encouraged each other.

Looking to next year, the team has tremendous potential for continued success. Juniors Craig Corliss, Derek Lefebvre, Jake Rosen, and Jared Wetherbee will help form the nucleus for next year's squad. Meanwhile, sophomore pitcher Ian Seymour will try to build off of his 6-0 rookie season and classmate Jack Gardner should continue to develop as a catcher, pitcher, infielder, and offensive threat.

Head coach Charlie Eppinger '92, Ed Shoro '07, Brett Ford, Jim Ritchie '83, Tom Feraco '86, William O'Connor '09, and Nick Deprospo '07 assisted in coaching the 2015 team.

Basketball

This was another outstanding season for the varsity basketball team. The team was led by the 3 senior captains, Drew Vittum, Stefan Masciarelli, and Devon Jones, along with 3 other seniors, Stephen Palecki, Bobby Spellane, and Evan Roy. This group has been playing together since freshman year and developed great team chemistry on and off the court.

Other major contributors were juniors, Nick Lukasevicz and Adham Floyd, and sophomores, Cole Stairs and Alex Bradley. Together, the team's offensive ability and lock-down defense served them well as the team achieved a 17-3 regular season record.

SJ's first opponent in the playoffs was Fitchburg High School, a very formidable team. The Pioneers were firing on all cylinders on their home court in front of an enthusiastic student fan section, and beat the Red Raiders 77-55.

Their next opponent was Franklin High School at WPI in the MA District Semi-Finals. The Pioneers proved victorious in a hard fought game where free throws made the difference at the end of the game.

The next game at WPI was the District Championship when the Pioneers unfortunately could not overcome the Grey Ghosts of Westford Academy.

Although Saint John's fell short of winning another District Title, the team is proud of their superb season.

Roster: Stefan Masciarelli, Bobby Spellane, Devon Jones, Evan Roy, Drew Vittum, Stephen Palecki, Adham Floyd, Joe Lewis, Nick Lukasevicz, Joe Murphy, Alex Bradley, Matt Sacco, Cole Stairs, Tyler Mola, Sean Burke, Jackson Emus, and Demetrius Safford

The fall season is made up of three six kilometer races. The team performed well at both Lowell and Lake Quinsigamond. The season culminated with the Head of the Charles Regatta, where SJ earned themselves an admirable 28th place out of 85.

Crew (Fall)

Due to a late thaw of Lake Quinsigamond, the spring season was one of the shortest in many years. Despite this, the team made the most of it because of the hard work of their coaches Nick Guida, Andrew Boyd, Bob Haddon, and Jim Riordan. The first, second, and third boats all qualified for the NEIRA Championship Regatta. All three boats gave it their all and went on to finish 9th overall, beating St. Paul's and Brookline.

A special thanks to all seniors who graduated this year: Nick Bongi, Nolan Gauthier, Matthew Gruszka, Tyler Hartman, Charlie Inman, Arnav Jain, Tim Kelly, Adam Murphy, Nate Pietrowicz, Mike Ready, and Gaurav Shashidhar.

Cross Country

Thanks to the encouragement and leadership of co-captains Ben Adams and Jeremy Canfield, the team trained consistently over the summer months and returned to campus in late August in great shape.

The team compiled an undefeated dual meet season (5-0), won the Central MA Catholic conference meet, and for the 5th year in a row, captured the Central MA District Meet.

In preparation for the end of the season championship races, the Pioneers entered three mid-season invitational races, finishing first in both the Bay State Invitational and the MSTCA Twilight meet, while finishing second in the Ocean State Invitational.

Consistent top scorers for the Pioneers were Harry Maloy, Ben Kovacs, Peter Monahan, Nick Green, Alex Schroeder, Alex Couture, Jackson Ennis and Garret Roy, along with freshmen Joshua Rahn and Joe Walsh.

With nearly 200 runners competing and 20 teams qualifying, the Pioneers wrapped up their season finishing 6th in the Division 1 All State Championship at Franklin Park, while junior Harry Maloy finished 12th, earning All-state honors!

With 5 of this year's top 7 runners and a strong freshmen class, the future remains promising for the Saint John's harriers.

Football

The SJ Pioneer football team came out this year with an enthusiasm to play. Led by seniors Devon Jones, Sam Norton, Shane Combs, and Nick Calvano the team experienced a season of both highs and lows. The team won their first game against Leominster. After losing to Catholic Memorial, the team went on to beat Fitchburg, Nashoba, and Shrewsbury. Winning a game against Malboro placed the Pioneers as the second seed in the Central MA playoffs. After a hard fought game, the Pioneers were knocked out of the playoffs by the Fitchburg Red Raiders.

The team this year had its own unique personality like all others before and after it.

Roster: Tom Feraco, John Fields, Nick Morrill, Nick Pallotta, Nick Calvano, Bobby Spellane, Brett Cotter, Matt DiPlacido, Anthony Moroski, Marc-Eddy Paul, Nick Blondin, Mitch Earley, Shane Combs, Davon Jones, Andrew Baublis, Alex Black, Jack Coveney, Anthony Franzoso, James Hojnoski, Sam Kloczkowski, Nick Kostiw, Patrick McMahon, William McNamee, Sam Norton, Andrew St. Pierre, Matthew Tauras, Xavier Marerro, Kaleb Dieterle, Brian Abossi, Daniel Adu-Boateng, Christian Bernard, Nicholas Bohigian, Zach Bryant, Jacob Byczko, Curtis Bynum, Tim Cassidy, Griffin Cooney, Michael Corinna, Brian Culbert, John Deso, Joe DiVerdi, Jay Gardiner, Sam Goodhue, Devin Green, Nick Lavoie, Nate Lee, Cam Lucey, John McCarthy, MacBrien Nkongchu, John Plifka, Sean Ragan, Jeremy Schold, Travis Terry, Lincoln Dunn, Sam Shaw

Record: 17-3-1

Golf

The Saint John's golf season kicked off in late August with a 3-round qualifying event to determine the Varsity and Junior Varsity squads. A total of 12 players made the Varsity roster, while 10 were chosen for the JV roster. Senior Matt Foley and junior Tim Umphrey were chosen as co-captains for the 2014 season.

The 21-match schedule kicked off on September 3rd versus Shrewsbury with a disappointing loss.The Pioneers settled down after that match and ran off nine straight victories. The second half of the season opened with a loss against the defending state champion St. John's Prep. Again, the Pioneers rebounded to go 8-1-1 the rest of the season including avenging both losses to Shrewsbury and St. John's Prep.

Their record of 17-3-1 qualified them to play in the Central MA District Tournament Division 1. The team continued their dominance with a victory paced by Walker, Umphrey, Foley, and Gresham, and this advanced them to the state championship.

The state championship was played at Springfield Country Club in late October, and despite the great momentum built up by the District win, the Pioneers struggled to play their game and finished in 9th place.

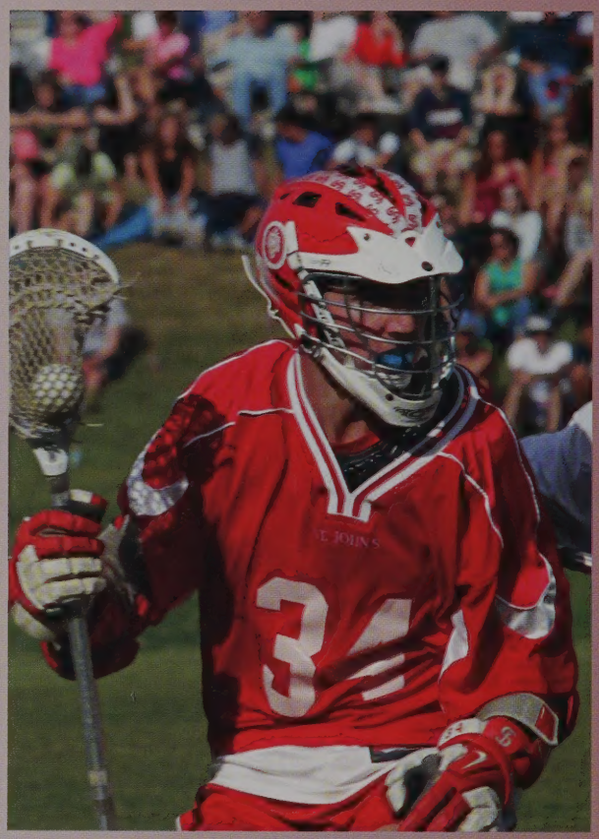
Ice Hockey

It was a transition year for the Pioneers, as they moved the entire hockey program to the New England Sports Center in Malboro, MA. Coach Michael Mead returned for his second season as the varsity head coach, backed by assistant coach George Spencer '96 and goalie coach Charlie Scavone '09, with additional help from head JV coach J.T. Kelley '94, assistant coach Jon Toland and Jeff Wright, and freshman coach Pete Carney.

The varsity team was headlined by a group of returning forwards including 2015 T&G Super Team selections seniors Garrett Lehan and Kevin Quinlivan. Fellow seniors Patrick Storer, Danny Barlok, and Brendan Doherty led a strong group of underclassmen.

The defense was led by returning players, senior Jared Ward and junior Michael Parente. Sophomores Adam Romano and Billy Zegras, along with freshmen Keith Moss and Jack Herlihy were very strong in their first years on the varsity roster. In the Pioneer net, junior Alex Franchi and sophomore Matt Mongeau split most of the time. Senior Tim Oger sustained an injury after the first game of the season and was missed by his teammates.

Despite missing the playoffs, the future for the Pioneers look bright as the JV and freshmen teams had very successful seasons.



Lacrosse

The '15 varsity lacrosse team had a great season finishing with a 13-5 regular season record and ending the year 15-6, after losing in the Central/West District Semi-Finals. The team had outstanding senior leadership and graduates 13 seniors to college next year. The season's highlights included: an improbably 4th quarter comeback win over St. John's Prep, beating 3 strong playoff teams including CMASS rival Algonquin to end the regular season, and a dominating victory over Shrewsbury.

The defense was lead by captain John DeFlumeri, Jack Coveney, Jamie Calderini, and Devin Greene. The goal was anchored by Hunter Gaither along with some key play by Matt Mongeau. The defensive midfield was led by Matt Taurus and Connor Rocco and long stick midfielders Brendan Doherty and Anthony Iandoli. The offensive midfield saw a rotation of Andrew Cox, Liam Donovan, Chris Coburn. Dawson Ritchie, Sam Rogers, Dominic Faiola, and Jake O'Donnell. The attack was led by captain Jared Ward, Parker Jean, Drew Kozub, and Andrew Brooks.

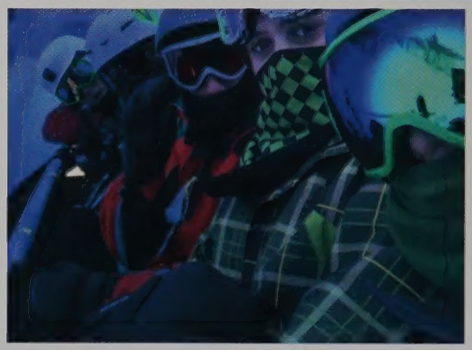
Skiing



As Central MA shivered through winter's icy grip, the SJ ski team brought some heat to the slopes.

With the leadership of the captains the team finished number one in the Central MA Ski League. Seniors Pat Simon and Nick Murner, and juniors Jared Kronlund and Bradley Sampson served as team captains this year.

Captain Brad Sampson led the team as the number one skier in the league and also was named Worcester T&G All Stars. Unfortunately, before the States, Brad had a season-ending injury that kept him from competing this year. Nick Murner, Jared Kronlund, and freshman Mitch Sampson represented SJ at the State Championship.

Soccer

The SJ varsity soccer team finished the season on a continued upward trend and re-established themselves as an elite team within Central MA. With a senior class full of strong contributors and leaders, and well-disciplined underclassmen, the soccer program continues to improve.

The team ended the season with a record of 12-7-3, improving on last year's total wins by 4 games, and earning a spot in the Central MA soccer playoffs (as 7th seed) for the first time in 5 years. The team, led by senior captains Ryan Darnley and Matthew Jarrell and junior captain Adam French, competed with a renewed sense of determination and passion that only a Saint John's athletic team could display.

In the post-season, SJ was able to earn a hard fought win against tenth-seeded Tantasqua High School and advance to the quarterfinals where they faced a second-seeded Shrewsbury High. SJ came out ready to give it all they could. Neither team was able to score within regular or overtime play. The game went into penalty kicks, and unfortunately, SJ was unable to come out on top, but showed incredible perseverance and competitive zeal.

Swimming and Diving

The Pioneer swimming and diving team improved greatly from last year going 5-4 in the Catholic Conference after a 2-7 campaign in '13-'14.

Leading the way for SJ were co-captains Alexander Sullivan and Jason Niness. The team had incredibly exciting finishes with BC High in the dual meet and league championships, where the final 400 freestyle relay determined the placing; SJ was the winner both times in very close races.

The team improved from last year, moving up from third to second place in the league meet scoring 87 more points this season. In the Sectionals, Saint John's came in 7th place with 59 points moving up from 16th place and 44 points in '14. For the State Meets, SJ came in 14th with 59 points, up from 24th place and 19 points last year.

The improvement of the team's standing was due to the dedication of the squad members who trained year-round for their sport.

Assisting coach Hodges this season: Michael Hughes and Mark Wild, both first assistants with the program, both contributed greatly to the organization and success of the team.

Tennis

The SJ Tennis team began drills with a multitude of new faces and not a plentiful supply of varsity experience. Led by senior captain Jonathan Dupre, the team realized the need to show daily improvement if they were to complete favorably at a high level.

As the season progressed, players fought hard to earn spots, and their competition helped the team to improve. Ben Burns '17 was a constant as a first doubler along with hard-hitting freshman Brahim Yatim. Senior Jack Marsh spearheaded the second doubler team with partners like John Massarelli '16, Ruchir Chaturvedi '16 and Alex Zhou.

T&G All Star John Dupre led the single player. Juniors Brian King and Brendan Gallagher showed their outstanding athleticism in singles and they both should be integral components to success in the future.

ST. JOHN

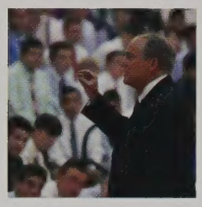
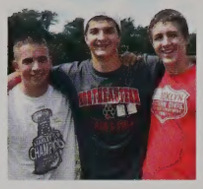
campus ministry

The 2014-2015 school year had a tremendous participation in the Big Red, Little Red program. More than 100 members of the senior class volunteered to serve as Big Reds at various times throughout the year, 'brothering' the members of the freshman class (Little Reds) through particular events and activities--most especially by facilitating small groups on the Freshman Retreat, serving as tour guides at freshman orientation, acting as Big Red homeroom leaders, and heading-up more small group work on the Freshman Day of Information in the spring.





Big Red/ Little Red

The day prior to the first day of classes in late summer of 2014, every member of the freshman class took part in a day-long retreat experience. Upperclassmen and faculty members welcomed the incoming class of 2018. They reflected on who they were and the journey that brought them to Saint John's High School.

Led by the senior class of 2015, the freshmen were divided into groups to perform service work. They washed and picked fresh produce at a nearby farm that provides food for the Worcester County Food Bank. These young men were introduced into the community of Saint John's service work from day one. At Saint John's, much is expected from those to whom much is given.

Freshman Retreat

Global Encounter - Camden

It was a cold February morning as 10 students and 2 teachers made the journey from Saint John's in Shrewsbury, Massachusetts to the Romero Center in Camden, New Jersey for a week of service, prayer and community-building. Camden, New Jersey is one of the poorest cities in the country. Many of the current residents are second and third generation 'Camdenites' who can't seem to break the cycle of poverty.

Our week of service included trips to a day care center, a homeless shelter, a soup kitchen, a warehouse and a nursing home. At the homeless shelter, we heard stories of struggle that sounded unimaginable to us primarily middle class kids from central Massachusetts. While at the day care center, we saw the potential in a few brilliant kids that would statistically never make it out of Camden. During our time at the soup kitchen, we became line cooks and fed 150 people.

Global Encounter - Haiti

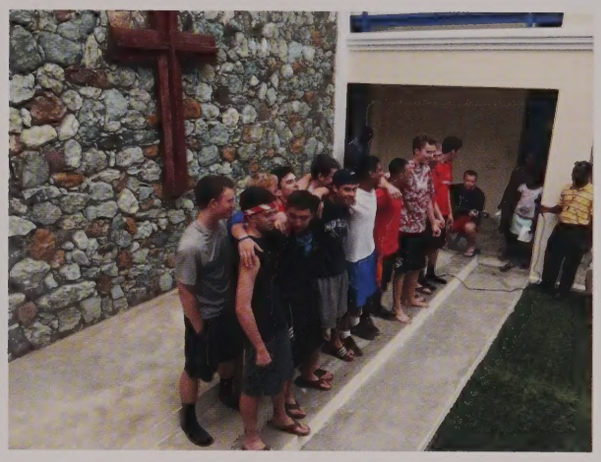
This past February, a group of 12 seniors and 3 faculty members embarked on a trip to Grand Goâve, Haiti. The transformative effect this trip had on all of us is difficult to adequately express in words. By immersing ourselves fully in the Haitian culture, we were exposed to something that was previously foreign to us.

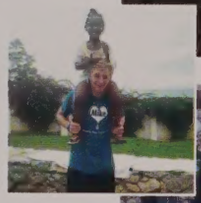
The week spent with the people of Haiti taught us lessons of perspective and gratitude; lessons that we would treasure and hold inside of us forever. Haiti is the poorest country in the Western Hemisphere.

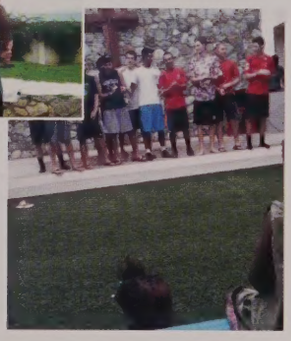
On the surface, Grand Goâve looked like an area decimated with poverty and destruction. Garbage lined the streets, people walked around with minimal clothing and houses were almost completely dilapidated. However, once I got past these initial sights, my perception of Grand Goâve changed completely. I saw love and compassion pervading through everyone walking the streets. I saw a sense of community and togetherness. As poor as the people may have been from a financial standpoint, they were rich in just about every other aspect of life.

The work that we did throughout the week focused on building a house for a family of eight. Our group worked from about 8-12 each morning, soaking in the Haitian sun and enjoying the mountainous view out in the distance. The work was very traditional, as there was minimal machinery or technology to help us expedite the process. We, along with the local Haitians, worked hard the whole week and it was a comforting feeling seeing the finished product and delivering the home to the ever-appreciative family.

Our week spent with the children and staff of Be Like Brit and the outside Haitian community taught our group precious, lifelong lessons. The biggest thing the experience provided us was a sense of perspective. Although it sounds trite, with our hectic and technology-filled lives, it can be so easy to lose this sense of perspective. Haiti enabled each and every one of us to take a step back and realize and appreciate all that we have. Haiti was an incredible experience, an experience that allowed us to grow as people and appreciate just how beautiful life really is.

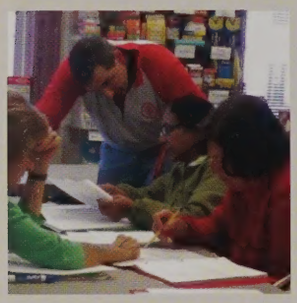




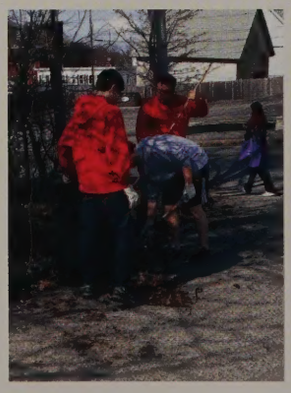


Seniors Jamie Calderini, Jack Coveney, Liam Donovan, Jack Hanna, Joseph Kapur, Russell McCarthy, Charlie McDonald, Adam Murphy, Felipe Pina, Daniel Ramsaran, Justin Vlass, and Timothy Whittredge and faculty leaders Mike Nicholson, Mike Foley '07, and Tim Williams were joined by Ross Pentland '05, an SJ alum whose cousin Britney's service and sacrifice inspired the building of the orphanage.

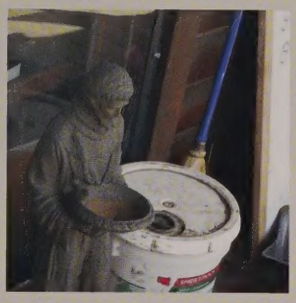
Global Encounter - Regional



A new tradition of service has taken root at Saint John's. During April break, while Global Encounter programs send students as far as Haiti and Ecuador, many students now have the opportunity to participate in Regional Encounters. Groups of students, along with faculty and administrators, work with various organizations in the New England area. This year, students spent time in Worcester, Providence, and Manchester, New Hampshire.



Global Encounter - WV



At midnight on a cool Sunday morning in April, six Saint John's juniors, two seniors, and two faculty members embarked on a journey to Bethlehem Farm in Alderson, West Virginia.

We arrived at "the farm" at 6:30 on Sunday evening, and we were welcomed with hugs and the caretakers greeting us, "Welcome home!" We were also met by a group of students from Xaverian Brothers High in Westwood, Massachusetts.

On our first full day on the farm, we all participated in various jobs, like mowing lawns or working in the garden. In the afternoon, we hiked up to the top of a neighboring farm's hill, where we sat in silence, reflected, and took in the natural beauty of the Appalachian Mountains.

The next four days were spent doing a number of different jobs in the community. The job experience that most made a lasting impact on me was building the ramp for Roy and Charlotte, a couple who had been married for over 40 years. One of the hallmarks of the Bethlehem Farm experience is the pure generous love of the community, that was present in all of our interactions.

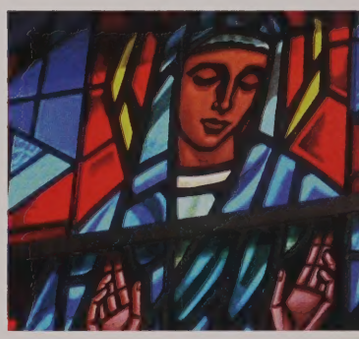
The experiences of our group from our week in West Virginia are truly unexplainable and unforgettable. We did work for those who were in need because we thought it would change their lives, which it did in small ways, but more so it was our lives that were changed.

Global Encounter - SD

Over April vacation, 7 students and 2 faculty members left the comfort of our central Massachusetts homes behind for the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation in South Dakota. Our group painted a nearby daycare, repaired a seasonal house and completed tasks at several homes and our home base for the week, Our Lady of the Sioux parish. I would consider the work we did unusually fulfilling, not because of its nature or difficulty, but rather the gratitude of the people we served. Volunteer teachers from the Red Cloud Indian School described their personal experiences of service and how their paths led to Pine Ridge. We had the opportunity to attend a Lakota Mass and make breakfast for about 50 people one morning, and cook dinner for an extended family of 35 another night. Every meal was special. Our time in South Dakota was truly incredible; it will stay with those of us blessed to experience this Global Encounter trip for the rest of our lives.

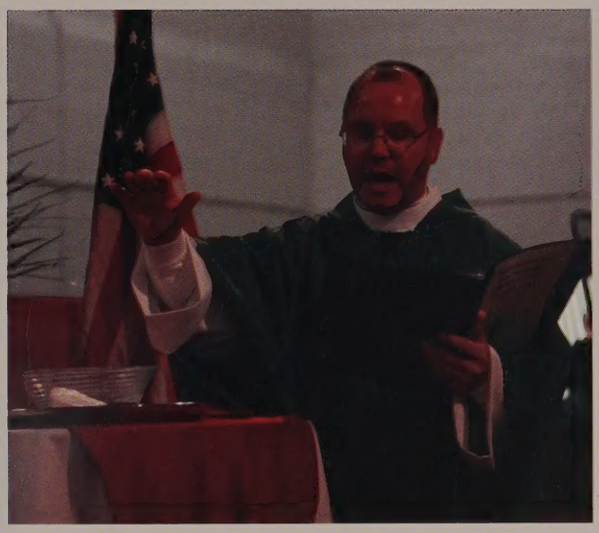
Junior Urban Encounter

The Junior Urban Encounter (JUE) aimed to enflesh the call to service issues in the junior-year religious studies course. Specifically, about ten students and two faculty completed a day and a half of service to several agencies in the greater Worcester area on each JUE. Typically, an Urban Encounter took students to sites such as the Refugee Apostolate, Almost Home, Great Brook Valley, and of course Coney Island Hot Dogs! Urban Encounter teams also had the privilege of visiting the original site of Saint John's High School on Temple Street, and in fact stay overnight in the parish rectory there, where they engage in reflection on their experiences and view the film "The Saint of Fort Washington."



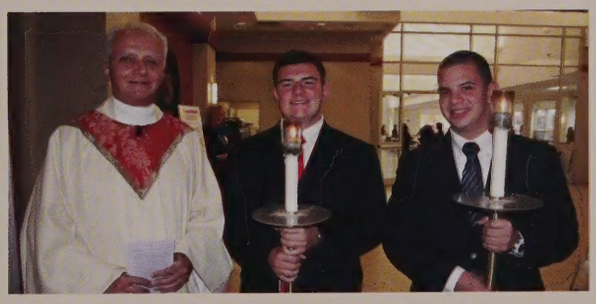
Kairos

First adapted from the adult Cursillo retreat movement about thirty years ago, Kairos (from the Greek, meaning "an opportune time" or "the right time") is a wildly popular four-day retreat offered at hundreds of Catholic high schools, colleges, and universities throughout the United States. This year, Kairos came to Saint John's and was enjoyed by over 70 upperclassmen and faculty in both November and March, at the Craigville Retreat and Conference Center, on the beach in Hyannis. The retreat covered a theme in each of its four days (self, others, God, tomorrow) and was structured around several large and small group sessions every day. Student leaders gave personal addresses in each large-group session, and faculty leaders facilitated small groups and lead the entire assembly in morning, evening, and night prayer.



Liturgies/Prayer Services

There have been many liturgies at Saint John's this year. Daily prayer was led at 9:20 every morning by seniors Sam Rogers and Sam Norton, and Daily Mass was celebrated in the school chapel every Friday morning by Rev. Ed Niccolls '66. Regularly throughout the school year, we also gathered in the Coaches Pavilion as an entire school community for different celebrations--including the Mass of the Holy Spirit, the Feast of All Saints, the Advent Mass and Founders Day Celebration, and the Holy Week Prayer Service and Global Encounter Commissioning.



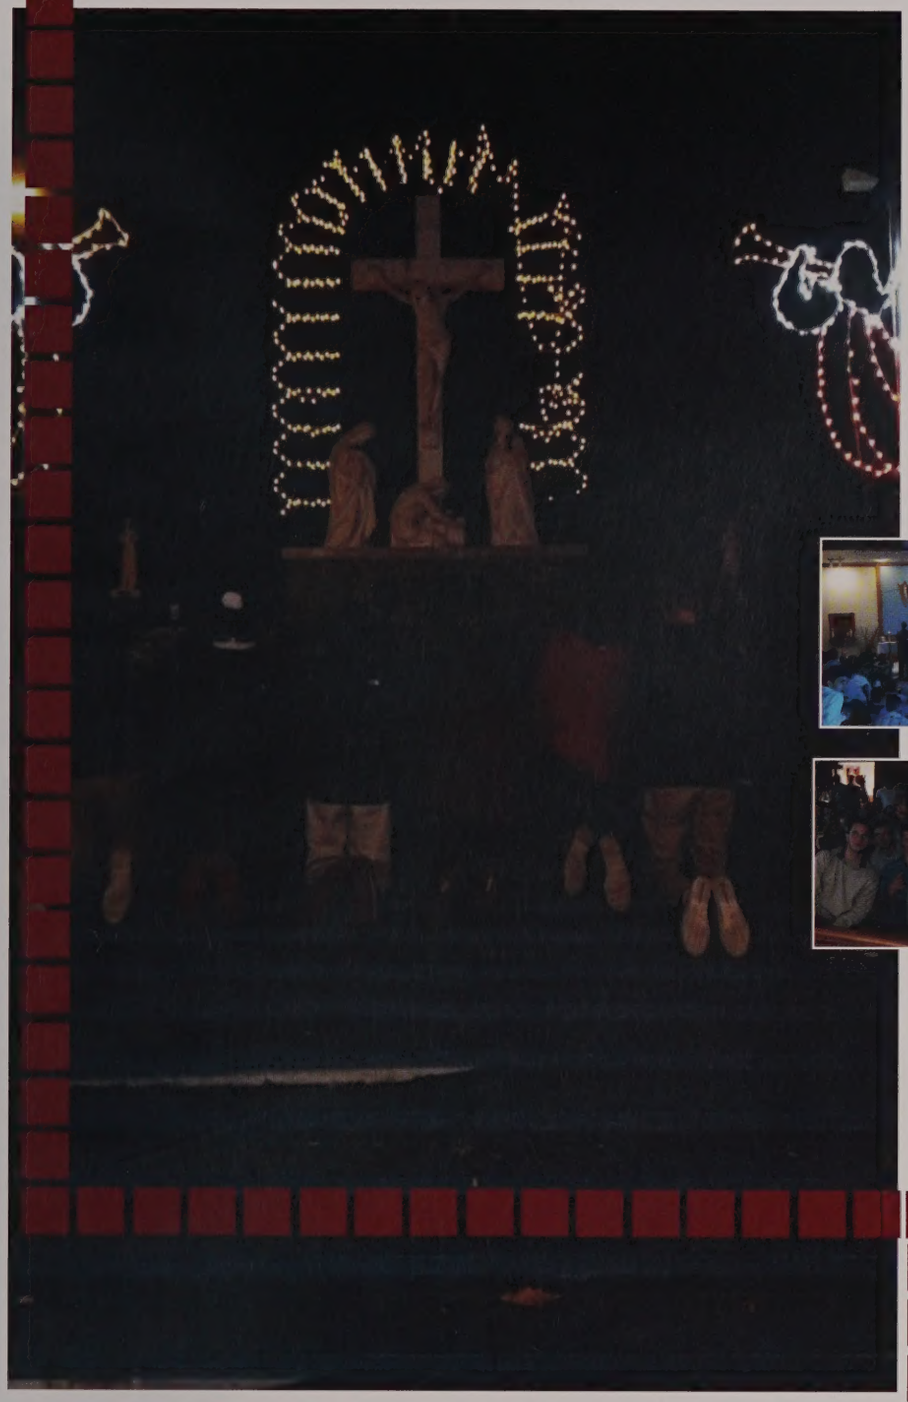
March for Life

Ten Saint John's students spent the week in Washington, D.C. at the 2015 March for Life with Campus Ministers Mike Nicholson and Mike Foley '07.

Nine seniors and one junior had the opportunity to see landmarks around the city, and they participated in several youth rallies with hundreds of other high school students.

For the Saint John's students that attended, this trip places a large emphasis on the inherent value and dignity of all humans. Pictured in front of the National Basilica, Demetrius Safford, Nick Calvano, Alex Gauvin, Pat Goodman, Brad Sampson, Matt Wilson, John Welsh, Andrew St. Pierre, Jacob Vasquez, and Justin Vlass explored Washington, D.C. in January while attending rallies across the city.

Pioneers, Pizza, Prayer



P3--pizza, Pioneers, and prayer--essentially provided an 'evening of retreat' once each month to any Saint John's student who wished to attend. Beginning with an all you can eat pizza dinner, those gathered adjourned to the school chapel following their meal for prayer and music, and to hear a personal large-group presentation by an upperclassman on a given topic, the topic changing each month. The crowd was then broken into small groups, and each Pioneer was invited to share his own life experiences as related to the topic. The large group reconvened for additional prayer and a closing song before dismissal. Each evening of P3 is coordinated by a team of student leaders and campus minister Mr. Foley.

Service Day

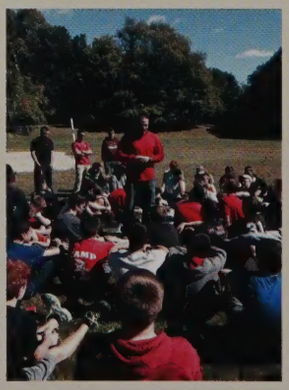
On May 10, 2015, the office of Campus Ministry sponsored the 14th annual Day of Service. Five-hundred Saint John's students, faculty, and staff, in conjunction with the parents of Saint John's, provided assistance for over fifty agencies including the Refugee Apostolate, the Hillside Restoration Project, the Shrewsbury Housing Authority, and Auburn Youth and Family Services. Volunteers arrived at Saint John's at 8:30 in the morning on a Saturday for a light breakfast followed by a prayer service before departing to their respective agencies. Over fifty Saint John's students remained on campus to assist with coordinating games for the visiting Nativity School students. Students concluded their service around 2:00 that afternoon.

Service Day

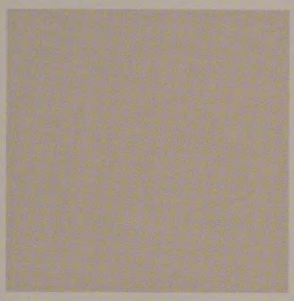
"I don't 'have' to do service, I 'get' to do service!"
- Warren Hayden

Storm

The sophomore retreat entitled "Storm" included an experience of guided meditation centered on the stories of the storm at sea and the walking on water. Two very personal keynote addresses were given by members of the senior class on each Storm retreat--the first a presentation about the various 'stormy' issues and situations the upperclassman has encountered during his high school years, and the second a presentation about how (often, whom) the upperclassman has found a foothold or sense of direction amidst the various 'storms' that have arisen in his high school years. Campus ministers and faculty leaders then facilitated small group conversations, to allow sophomores to surface and discuss what 'storms' they're weathering, or even sense looming on the horizon. All members of the sophomore class attended the day-long retreat, held off-campus at the Calvary Retreat Center in Shrewsbury. The day included free-time activities (human chain, Frisbee, etc.) as well as 'organized fun.'



Xavierian Brothers Sponsored Schools



In March of every year, each of the thirteen Xavierian Brothers Sponsored Schools (XBSS) sends a team of six juniors and one faculty member to a five-day retreat and conference in West Hartford, Connecticut. At the conclusion of the retreat, each school's XBSS team returns to its respective school with proposals aimed to further enrich its school's commitment to Xavierian ideals and charisms through new programming and service initiatives. XBSS team members are chosen by the SJ administration from the four or five dozen students nominated by faculty each year.
